Hello,

TMAC Resources Inc.'s memorandum resolves issues 8-10 of Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada's June 6, 2013 technical review memorandum and confirms the Department's interpretation of the minimum 10-day notice period that must be provided to an Inspector appointed under the Nunavut Waters and Nunavut Surface Rights Tribunal Act prior to any planned discharge of water from project facilities.

Best regards,
David

Please find our response to the questions from the Technical Session on the 18th. We have corresponded extensively with AANDC and believe they are in concurrence with our response.
