Greetings, Phyllis, The combination of the former Dunsmuir Ventures and Peregrine Diamonds as "Peregrine Diamonds Ltd." occurred in January 2006, well before Peregrine applied for renewal of its Nanuq Water Licence (currently #2BE-NAN0813); Peregrine Diamonds shares began trading in January 2006 and Dunsmuir Ventures was delisted as a company in January 2006. Therefore, NWB did not require Peregrine to supply a specific letter prior to processing Peregrine's application for #2BE-NAN0813. There is, however, a detailed press release, dated 17 January 2006, which I have attached and which provides details of this event. All claims on the Nanuq property are 100% Peregrine, in the name of Peregrine, and were so at the time of applying for #2BE-NAN0813 and the associated Land-Use Permit #N2007C0039. I trust that the attached document will suffice for your purposes? (Since NWB did not require this documentation at the time of the application for #2BE-NAN0813 in November 2007, I did not have this information readily at hand.) Best regards and thank you, -- ssp

Hi Shirley, here's a question for you. Do you happen to have, anywhere in your vast amount of paperwork, any documents changing the name from Dunsmuir Ventures Ltd. to Peregrine Diamonds?
Regards,
