Good morning Amie – The NWB acknowledges receipt of your application for renewal on February 7, 2012. My apologies for not responding sooner, however we had several blizzard days, then all the staff away for a week of meetings.

Regarding your application, you indicate an expiry of 2016. May I suggest that you reduce this to two years. Our Nunavut Waters Regulations will hopefully be approved by then and there will be no requirement for water licences under a certain threshold. Your project will fall into that category and if you still have a valid licence once the regs are approved there will be a requirement to apply for a cancellation which will require a lot more administration.
Regards,

Phyllis Beaulieu
