Subject: Nunavut Water Board's intention to send its Mine Reclamation Coordinator to Arctic Bay

Dear Parties,

As part of its ongoing policy to promote public awareness and active participation by stakeholder communities in its hearing process, the Nunavut Water Board will be sending its Mine Reclamation Coordinator, Patrick Duxbury, to Arctic Bay. While in Arctic Bay, Patrick will hold community meetings and information sharing-sessions regarding the Nanisivik Mine 2004 Reclamation and Closure Plan, recently submitted by CanZinco Limited. Questions and concerns posed by Arctic Bay's residents during those meetings will be recorded and may be filed as a submission for the proposed technical meeting and public hearing to be held concerning CanZinco Limited's application to reclaim the Nanisivik Mine site.

Interested parties may contact Patrick by telephone at (867)-983-3039 or by email at coordinator@nwb.nunavut.ca.

Yours truly,
