Do not know if my first reply got to you or not, play safe, here it is again.

Thought I had notified you earlier that NPC will not require to do a review on file #NWB1CUL. You can proceed with your process. I will not be in the office until middle of next week, will send you the doc. then apologies...cheers/

Hi Brian,
I got your message today from last week. Sorry, I was out sick and am finally back today. I got both of the conformity reviews. Thanks.

If there was any other question, let me know.

How's NWB1CUL coming? Any decision on whether or not it needs to be reviewed???

Thanks,
