Dean Sean,

In reply to your query, yes, Savant would be interested in renewing its Yava Water Permit. I am currently traveling and would greatly appreciate if you could kindly review your files on the Yava Permit and advise me on the permit's status, renewal date deadline..etc. As you may know, Savant has been inactive in the area since 2008 but we feel 2011 may see some field activity with the significant upturn in commodity prices. Your support is clearly welcomed.

Best regards,

Dear Mr. Cote:

Could you please confirm whether or not there are plans to renew the above-referenced licence in the near future.
