Good Afternoon

Please find attached the Inuktitut documents to support the TMAC application submitted via email June 15, 2015. Once the Inuinnaqtun translations are available, the electronic versions of the application packages will be revised and emailed to your attention and hardcopies of the pages will be forwarded to your respective offices for insertion in the binders already sent. A revised external memory stick will also be forwarded with the replacement pages. We anticipate the remaining translations to be available next week and will advise you when this second package is being forwarded to your offices.

Regards,

Elizabeth
