Good afternoon.

The NWB had on received on January 25, 2019, a slightly updated version of the Waste Rock, Ore, and Mine Backfill Management Plan, attached, that was unfortunately not sent for review, but rather the version received on January 17, was sent for review. This updated version of the plan included updates to Appendix A and section 3.2 and 3.2.1, with criteria to guide the determination of PAG and NPAG material.
