Attachments: 110222-09MN003-NIRB Ltr to Dist Re EIS Guidelines Development Workshop-OT2E.pdf

Dear Parties,

Please see the attached correspondence from the Nunavut Impact Review Board (NIRB) regarding the Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) Guidelines development workshop that will be held in Baker Lake on March 21-24, 2011 as part of the NIRB's review of AREVA Resources Canada Inc.'s (AREVA) "Kiggavik" project proposal (NIRB File No.: 09MN003).

At this time, parties planning to attend the EIS Guidelines development workshop are asked to provide the NIRB with a list of their planned representatives and the key issues they wish to have included on the agenda for discussion as soon as possible. Parties requiring clarification or wishing to confirm their planned attendance at this upcoming workshop may do so by contacting Sophia Granchinho, Technical Advisor, at sgranchinho@nirb.ca or (867) 793-4633.

The logo features a stylized green leaf background. At the top, there is Inuktitut syllabics. Below this is a red maple leaf. The letters "NIRB" are prominently displayed in large, bold black font. Underneath "NIRB" are the words "UNAVUT IMPACT REVIEW BOARD" in smaller capital letters. At the bottom, there is another line of Inuktitut syllabics.

explain the role of their organization in the NIRB's review of the Kiggavik project proposal. Parties will be asked to deliver a short presentation to the public on behalf of their respective organization or group, and the Proponent for the Kiggavik project will be invited to provide an overview of its project proposal, with opportunity for questions from the public.

Workshop - Wednesday, March 23, 2011:

Morning session – 8:30 am to 12:00 pm

Afternoon session – 1:30 pm to 5:00 pm

Workshop - Thursday, March 24, 2011:

Morning session – 8:30 am to 12:00 pm

Afternoon session – 1:30 pm to 5:00 pm

The EIS Guidelines development workshop will be facilitated by NIRB staff and set up to allow for a roundtable discussion, with assigned seating for confirmed participants and a general seating area for interested members of the public. All parties will be provided with an opportunity to speak to each issue of interest on the agenda in a structured format, with an open microphone also made available for members of the general audience. Simultaneous English-Inuktitut interpretation will be made available throughout the workshop, open house and community information session.

Following receipt of comment submissions on the Revised Draft EIS Guidelines on March 2, 2011, the NIRB will circulate a draft agenda with topics for discussion at each of the workshop sessions. The Board asks that parties planning to attend the EIS Guidelines development workshop provide the NIRB with a list of their planned representatives and the key issues they wish to have included on the agenda for discussion as soon as possible. Parties are also asked to limit their planned participants to required individuals only, as only limited seating can be made available at the table for each group during the workshop sessions.

Parties requiring clarification or wishing to confirm their planned attendance at this upcoming workshop may do so by contacting Sophia Granchinho, Technical Advisor, at sgranchinho@nirb.ca or (867) 793-4633.

Sincerely,

Ryan Barry
Director, Technical Services
