Hi Richard,

Thank you for letting us know. I apologize for the confusion. It appears there has been a misunderstanding between CIRNAC and LMI. CIRNAC is currently reviewing the draft Post Closure Monitoring Plan for a meeting between CIRNAC and LMI scheduled for next week.

CIRNAC was not aware that we were also requested to review the draft Water Quality Monitoring and Water And Soil Quality Assurance/Quality Control Plan in preparation for the same meeting, and we have not begun a review for this plan. As such, CIRNAC will still appreciate the April 9, 2021 deadline, and appreciates LMI's understanding and flexibility in this regard.

Kind regards,

Bridget Campbell

Good morning Bridget,

The NWB received the following response to the CIRNA extension request:

"Hi Richard,

LMI would agree to an extension but would like to advise that CIRNAC is currently reviewing this plan (emailed to them on February 26, 2021) with their consultants along with the draft Post Closure Monitoring Plan, the QA/QC they are reviewing is dated February 2021 - but only the contact information changed in the February 2021 version vs August 2020.

CIRNAC is supposed be providing LMI will their comments on this plan for our call next week (March 25, 2021) so we can incorporate any requesting changes into the February 2021 QA/QC before we submit it along with the Post Closure Monitoring Plan on April 9, 2021 to the NWB.

Karyn Lewis"

The NWB is forwarding this to clarify this is the same version distributed yesterday for comments.

Regards,
