Good afternoon;

Please disregard email below sent to you September 2, 2014 as the notice references the incorrect file #. Apologies for the inconvenience.

The Agnico Eagle Mines (AEM) Vault Lake Pit Expansion request into the Phaser Lake under the DFO application (attached) will not require an NPC conformity review.

All the conformity requirements to which the proponent agreed to related to the Meadowbank Project are still in effect and must be incorporated, or otherwise ensure that they are met in the terms and conditions on any authorisations issued.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at aglukark@nunavut.ca

Importance: High

Good afternoon,

Email to confirm that the above extension request under the AANDC authorisation N2011C0014 will not require a NPC conformity review. The terms agreed to under an AANDC File N2011C0014, dated March 22, 2011 under a NWB 2BE PBP review are still in effect and must become part of any authorization issued.

I have attached the terms agreed to under the NWB 2BE PBP review.

Any questions concerns, please do not hesitate.

Subject: NPC conformity determination - AEM Vault Pit Expansion into Phaser Lake - Project Description

Hi Mr. Aglukark,

Agnico Eagle Mines Limited – Meadowbank Division has submitted a project description for the Vault Pit Expansion into Phaser Lake to the Nunavut Planning Commission for a conformity review with the Kivalliq Regional Land Use Plan on July 15th 2014. The NIRB will not asses the project proposal before they received the conformity determination from the NPC. AEM want to know when can we expect a conformity review on this project description.

Bests regards,

Marie-Pier Marcil
