

As indicated previously to the parties, the Final Hearing will be conducted in accordance with the NIRB's Rules Of Procedure and in accordance with the Board's Pre-Hearing Conference Decision in this matter. The Final Hearing will be conducted by the NIRB's Chairperson and Board Members, with support from the NIRB staff and legal counsel as required.

Also please note that during the Final Hearing the Board has scheduled a site visit for Saturday, August 23. All participants in the Final Hearing, including intervenors, will be invited to attend the site visit and the Board will be issuing further details regarding the agenda, schedule and logistics for the site visit 30 days to the site visit.

Should you have questions regarding the filing of your written submissions or your participation in the Final Hearing for the Meliadine Gold project, please contact Amanda Hanson, Director, Technical Services at (867) 983-4615 or via email at ahanson@nirb.ca.

Sincerely,

Attached: Appendix A: Format for Parties' Final Written Submissions

Written submissions must contain the following:

1. Executive Summary

Submissions must contain a non-technical executive summary of the major issues identified during the review of the Final Environmental Impact Statement (Final EIS). The summary should not exceed two pages.

2. Table of Contents

Submissions must contain a table of contents with sections related to the main headings of the NIRB's EIS Guidelines for the Project and identifying the major issues under those headings the party intends to address at the Final Hearing. In addition to addressing the major issues they have identified for the Final Hearing, submissions may also address any other matter the party considers relevant to the NIRB's review of the Final EIS and the Project.

3. Introduction

All submissions should contain a statement of the party's mandate and relationship to the Project, and for parties with regulatory jurisdiction over the Meliadine Project, a description of the jurisdiction of that party and a list of the legislation, regulations, policies and guidelines administered by the party that are applicable to the Project.

4. Specific Comments

For each issue included in the submissions, parties should provide the following:

- a) A detailed description of the issue and, where appropriate, a reference to where within the Final EIS (document, section and page number) that issue is discussed;
- b) If provided by the Proponent, identify the Proponent's conclusion(s) related to the issue;
- c) A statement regarding the conclusion(s) of the commenting party related to the issue, including reference to the justification/data/rationale supporting that conclusion;
- d) A brief discussion assessing the issue's importance to the impact assessment process; and
- e) Any recommendation(s) to the Board with respect to the disposition of the issue.

5. Summary of Recommendations

Finally, submissions must contain a bulleted summary of the recommendations to the Board with respect to:

- whether Parties agree/disagree with the conclusions presented in the Final EIS regarding the alternatives assessment, environmental impacts, proposed mitigation, significance of impacts, and monitoring measures – and all evidence supporting the parties' position;
- whether or not conclusions presented in the Final EIS are supported by the analysis – and all evidence supporting the parties' position;

- whether appropriate methodology was utilized in the Final EIS to develop conclusions – and all evidence supporting the parties’ position;
- an assessment of the quality of the information presented in the Final EIS; and
- an assessment of the appropriateness of proposed monitoring measures – and evidence to support the determination, along with any proposed alternative monitoring measures which may be more appropriate (if applicable).

Translation/Interpretation Requirements

The NIRB requires executive summaries be provided in English and be translated into both Inuktitut and French. Please note that parties are responsible for sourcing this translation.

The Final Hearing will be conducted in Inuktitut and English, using simultaneous interpretation. The NIRB will also ensure that simultaneous interpretation in French is made available upon request. Please notify the NIRB should you require French interpretation to be made available for the Final Hearing.

Additionally, those who require special audio-visual equipment at the Final Hearing are requested to inform the NIRB in order that adequate arrangements can be made.

Format, File Size and Deadline for filing submissions

Parties must provide submissions in a fully functional, electronically searchable Word, Excel or PDF file. Noting the current constraints with respect to internet bandwidth and speed, the NIRB requests that all documents be submitted as files no larger than 5 MB.

The NIRB reminds parties that the deadline for final written submissions is 5:00 pm MT Monday July 21, 2014.
