Dear Parties;

Please be advised that the Nunavut Impact Review Board (NIRB) is still in communication with Baffinland regarding its 2013 Annual Report for the Mary River project. As additional information is still being received by our office relating to the report, the NIRB is unable at this time to provide a firm update to the commenting deadline. The NIRB expects to provide notice in the coming week regarding the additional information as it becomes available, and provide parties with more time to review the entire submission.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact info@nirb.ca.

Best regards,

Natasha Lear
