Hi Assol,

I wanted to let you know we've revised our anticipated submission date for our Phase 2 Information Request Response Package from Friday, December 14th to Monday, December 17th.

On a side, but very important note, do you have an update on the next steps in the NWB's coordinated review of the Phase 2 application? Are we still on track to enter a joint technical review period following the submission of our Phase 2 Information Request Response Package? There seems to be a lot of confusion around the NWB's process for carrying out its completeness process and formally accepting our application. This has been mentioned to us by both the QIA and the NIRB.

Thanks,

Lou
