Thanks for letting me know. As per the timeline for the process, NWB was looking to issue the Decision on January, 18. When does QIA expect to complete the work?

Hello Assol,

We received a proposal from Baffinland last Friday and currently working on it. It's taking a bit longer than we anticipated. Do you have a preferred timeline for the submission?

Best Regards, Fai

Hi Assol,

We have not yet reached a joint agreement, but we are actively working towards it. I have been in contact with Fai on this matter, the process is in Baffinland's court at the moment and we owe the QIA a proposal that should be submitted tomorrow. We will keep you updated as the process moves forward.

Hi Fai and Christopher,

As the NWB is still waiting for the potential joint submission from BIMC and QIA the NWB decision's issuance day will likely be moved to a later date. The Board will advise about the decision day once the BIMC/QIA submission is provided to NWB. I am also cc-ing CIRNAC with this to let them know that the NWB decision will be issued at a later date subject to BIMC/QIA submission.
