Subject: 2009 Field Inspection LUP N2008C0026. Kivalliq Energy. Yathkyed Lake.

After reviewing my Field Report and diary notes it's clear that I made a mistake in compiling the report.

How I made a mistake such as this and confused two different sites, is beyond me.

In the future I'll endeavor not to make a similar mistake, my apologies.

In the meantime, could you give me a clearer picture of your spring ice drilling activities, if any. I'm in the process of compiling a list of companies that are or going to be active this spring and from that information set out an inspection route.

My Thanks
