Hello Eva,

I want to let you know that I have just heard back now from Wynter Kuliktana, the new lands officer at KIA since Stanley Anablak left I guess. She would like to have the call I suggested scheduled for the coming Tuesday so that is when I will talk to her about the bond in place and how we can make this work in conjunction with another cleanup if possible. Alix still has negative cash but I am working on different ideas to create financing dollars.

Do you know if, since we are long gone from the area, KIA will allow a bond to be used to pay a cleanup expedition? I really do not know how it works up there but I think I recall you mentioning in an email that perhaps we could work with them towards a cleanup program. I have been discussing a cleanup expedition with a company that was recommended to me by another company that was active in Nunavut in the past called Matrix Aviation. I will keep you posted on this and get you a website perhaps to see if they qualify.

That is it for now, have a great weekend,

Mike

Hello Eva,

We are working on getting a budget this ASAP. The Company has had no cash and owes about $900,000 the last 2+ years so dealing with this has been impossible. We are going to give the Company one more shot now – it has been restructured so it gives us a better chance, though still in debt. Regardless of that, getting a budget on this matter is important and I am obtaining a new one now.

Sorry for the delays, I will get back to you by next week I would imagine.

Best regards,

Mike England

Hello Mr. England,

I'm trying different avenues to reach you, as the contact information I have on file, and that the Nunavut Water Board has on file has not been successful. I just came across this address on-line. Please confirm receipt of this message. The message below was sent this morning to info@alixresources.com, and the messages in January to mike@engcom.ca.

Regards,

Eva Paul

Mr. England,

Please acknowledge receipt of this e-mail. You will find attached a second letter of non-compliance for the water licence 2BE-ARC0813 (Arcadia Project) and supporting documents. A first letter was sent on January 30, 2015 to the e-mail address I have on file from past correspondence with you. No response was received.

There is outstanding reclamation work to be conducted for this project, which poses a threat to waters and lands in Nunavut. This project is located on Inuit-Owned Land.

Att: IQALUIT-#914287-v1-2BE-ARC0813 Second Notice Letter of Non-Compliance and other supporting documents.

Regards,

Eva Paul
