- i. If not, explain why such flights are or may be absolutely necessary.

Low level flights will only occur when necessary. Low level flights are necessary for mineral exploration to conduct sampling by helicopter and airborne geophysical surveying (helicopter & fixed wing). Sampling involves dropping crews off and "hopping" from site to site. Airborne geophysical surveys are generally flown at elevations of 30m (helicopter) to 60m (fixed wing) above ground level.

- ii. If such flights are or may be absolutely necessary, will they avoid disturbance to people and wildlife?

- iii. If not, explain why it is not possible to avoid such disturbance.

Flight will, to the best of our ability, avoid disturbance to people and wildlife. However, helicopter and fixed wing activities "may" be noticed by wildlife. Since we are not flying over inhabited areas, we are not anticipating any disturbance to people. Every attempt will be made to fly outside of caribou areas.

7. Caribou Protection Measures s2.4.6 and Appendix 3: Will the applicant comply with the Caribou Protection Measures outlined in section 2.4.6 and in Appendix 3?
