The Nunavut Water Board acknowledges receipt, on June 27, 2014, of a new water licence application for the Coppermine Project. In order to move forward on this application the following information is required.

1. Abandonment and Restoration Plan
2. Most recent audited financial statement
3. A topographical map of appropriate scale identifying camp locations and infrastructures.

Once received the NWB will be in a position to send the file out for the normal 30 day review and comments.
