Thanks Dave,

For the moment we should still work under the "Wolfden" name – I may have jumped the gun with my Zinifex contact info. Apparently until the legal documents are completed we are still Wolfden. I will update you once things have changed,

Regards,

Ian

Hello Ian,

just a couple notes on your email... I think the polarnet address you cc'd to is an older email, probably 3 years or so, Phyllis' new address (change last October) is licensing@nunavutwaterboard.org and Richards is licensingtrainee@nunavutwaterboard.org

I will forward the email and attachments to them for the public record.

On another note, the application for renewal was made under the Wolfden name. Has there been a formal change of name submitted to the NWB for licensing correspondence and future reference. If not, would you be able to get something in shortly. Am I safe to assume that the HIG renewal should be issued under "Zinifex Canada"?

Thanks for the help,

Dave
