MHBL intends to have two watchmen on site during the break up period with the expected re-opening of the camp on or about July 15, 2003. From July 15, 2003, the Windy Lake camp will remain open until the summer exploration program is completed when the camp will be closed and winterized on or about September 15, 2003.

As a side note, please be advised that the Boston camp remains open and it is not expected to shut down until the 2003 drilling program is completed in July.
