Good afternoon Mike, Administratively the file is complete other than the requirement for fees. There is a $30.00 admin fee to be paid as well as a water use fee which has not been determined at this point. I would suggest you pay the $30.00 deposit for water use and pay the balance when the technical staff make a determination on whether to allow 60 or 80 m3/day for drilling purposes.

I have forwarded the file to Karen for a preliminary tech review. You will be notified if any additional technical information is required to move the file to completion.

Regards,
