Hi Phyllis,

When we received the conformity on May 29th we reviewed the file (06EN003) based on the INAC LUP #N2005C0040. We determined that we had given approval for the 2nd amendment to this LUP and that it expires in March 2009. The last activity that I can see from our end was an extension in September of 2007.

The NIRB would not generally review only the Type B Water License.

I hope this is of assistance, please call me if you have any questions.

Regards,

Leslie

Good afternoon Leslie. The attached NPC conformity was received in our office on May 29th. Indication is NPC sent it to NIRB for screening at that time. Please advise if NIRB has completed their review. The current license expired on April 28th and the company is pretty anxious to get their renewal in place. Your 2006 file number is 06EN003.
