Good day Ralph

The Technical Advisor on the file, Karen, has advised that the submissions included the Water Pumping Adaptive Management Plan that was due within the 2014 Annual Report and 2 updated management plans that were supposed to be included within the renewal application. The application for renewal of the Licence could now be considered complete for a full technical review. If further information or clarification is needed the GN-CGS will be informed once the technical review is completed.

The NWB is now waiting to convene the Rankin Panel Meeting to authorize the distribution of the Notice of the Application and to commence the technical review.
