Good morning Robert,

To complete the file we'll require submission of the follow from :

- Part B, Item 1 Annual Report for 2009 due March 31, 2010 (if there was no activity for 2009 please record it as such in the annual report)
- Part H, Item 1 Spill Plan due November 4, 2008

Before the licence can be considered closed Indian and Northern Affairs Canada may be required to perform a final inspection of your camp area you'll have to confirm it with them, I've copied INAC in Iqaluit on this.

Regards,

Dear Richard:

As I informed you in an email on October 29, 2010, and several times in previous years, my NWB license 3BC-MIO0809 was obtained for a one-time archaeological project in the summer of 2008. The archaeological fieldwork was completed in August of 2008 and the correspondence that I have previously received from your office indicates that I subsequently fulfilled all of my reporting requirements for that 2008 project. Your current request seems to be made under the assumption that mine is an ongoing project, which it is not. So what is the procedure to finally close the books on that project, so that neither of us needs to be troubled with this any more?

Bob
